Peter's Pence Collection

These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Be a sign of hope with your generosity. For more information, visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

From the Pastor's Desk

Happy Father's Day to all the fathers, grandfathers, and godfathers in our parish family! In our first reading this weekend, the Prophet Jeremiah is crying out to the Lord in the face of violent opposition because of his fidelity to the Lord. He is praying, venting, and trusting at the same time. He is confident that the Lord will deliver him and at the same time has a desire to continue his mission of bringing God's people back.

On Father's Day weekend, I think fondly of my dad who in the midst of raising five kids never seemed to complain or worry. If he did, he never made it known to us. I don't recall any ranting about family stuff, his career, politics, or sports. I do remember seeing him pray. He often included us in his prayers when we were still at home. Later he would call or write to let us know we were in his prayers, something he also passed down to his grandchildren. This weekend, as we give our dad's gifts, I'd just like to remind all the dads that the gift of prayer and the witness to prayer is one of the great gifts you can give to your family. Not everyone will be able to leave a legacy of wealth, but a treasury of love rooted in prayer is probably the best way to live and to be remembered.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Joe Keough

June is the Month of the Sacred Heart:

From the writings of Pope Pius XXII:

“It is altogether impossible to enumerate the heavenly gifts which devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has poured out on the souls of the faithful, purifying them, offering them heavenly strength, rousing them to the attainment of all virtues.”
